50X1-HUM

1. In October 1949 50 German men and women began work on an airfield near Kheyligenbeyl (Heiligenbeil, 54-28N, 19-57E). The airfield is located northeast of the town, between the railway to Wolittnick and the road to Bladiau.

2. The airfield had been badly damaged by bombing and shell fire and by the digging of trenches.

3. In January 1950 an additional 60 Germans arrived to assist in the work.

50X1-HUM

4. Near the town four huts were built half-hidden in the ground. Brick buildings were to be constructed later near the railway, but by January 1950 only rubble had been delivered and no excavations for these buildings were visible.
